Chairman's Address

On behalf of

Coiste Cumann Lúthchleas Gael Cill Chainnigh

I extend a Cead Míle Fáilte do gach aon duine following our Michael Lyng Motors Hyundai Intermediate Hurling Final in UPMC Nowlan Park. The final step on the ladder, it will see last year's finalists Thomastown and Lisdowney competing to return to the Senior grade. After a long absence the ambition and dream for Thomastown is to add to their Intermediate title win in 1983 and emulate their predecessors who won the Senior title in 1946, whilst for Lisdowney's it is to get the opportunity to compete again at Senior level and reach the final as they did in 1962.

This year's activities and competitions have taken place in a unique Covid 19 restricted year that has seen tremendous challenges to our clubs and communities. As a result Míle Buíochas is extended to all players, members, parents, coaches, teachers, front line workers and club officials for their dedication and commitment in so many areas. Also to the CCC's, stewards, Covid officers, grounds-people, match officials and the hosting clubs for ensuring the completion of the games program.

In addition thanks to the local and national media, Kilkenny People, Observer, KCLR, CRKC, RTE, TG4, photographers, PRO's Tweeters, streamers and Nemeton who all combined to ensure that our followers could engage with the games. Also to the sponsors, supporters and the Hurlers Co-Op Draw patrons who continually support the teams and the facilities.

Sincere thanks are extended through Michael and Neill Lyng to Michael Lyng Motors Hyundai our long standing and generous Intermediate Hurling competition sponsors. On County Final day no matter where you are, we invite you to follow the Covid guidelines and Social Restrictions as we look forward to Staying Safe and following our games into the inter county arena. Sa deireadh I extend best wishes go foirne Baile Mhic Andáin agus Lios Dúnfhiaich agus an réiteoir Sean Cleere and his match officials

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh taitneamh as an cluiche. Seamus Breathnach (Jimmy Walsh) Cathaoirleach, Coiste Chontae Chill Chainnigh.
